Study Tour Report 2019-20

Route : Wai-Panchgani-Mahabaleshwar

No. of Student : 20

The Department of Geography had organized one day study tour under the subject Practical Geography (Paper No. XVI). B.A.III year students have visited to Wai-Panchgani-Mahabaleshwar. Mahabaleshwar is one of the famous tourist cold places known in Maharashtra state as well as in country. Moreover, Lord Ganesh temple in Wai has historical and cultural significance.

The students of Geography visited Wai-Panchgani-Mahabaleshwar with the purpose of study tour. The study tour was organized in order to promote their ability to observe physical, social and cultural factors and variations. They should be able to observe and understand the changes between Deccan plateau and Sahyadri Mountain. After their study tour, students prepare a study tour report which contains detailed information of visited tourist places including the causes of difference in social and cultural factors, its consequences on physical features, local man-made features and disturbance of environment conditions.
