ONE PAGE ONE EXPRESSION

Theme: My First Day of College

The Department of English, under the aegis of the English Literary Association, conducted a creative writing activity titled “One Page One Expression” on the theme “My First Day of College” during the academic year 2026–27. The activity was organised to provide students with a meaningful platform to express their first-day experiences, memories, feelings and observations through their own writing.

The activity was conducted with the purpose of inculcating writing skills among students and encouraging them to develop confidence in written expression. It also aimed to promote creativity, independent thinking, reflection and effective communication. Students were encouraged to transform their personal experiences into a one-page written expression and to share their individual perspectives on their first day of college.

Ten students enthusiastically participated in the activity and shared their experiences of the first day of college. Their writings presented a range of emotions and observations associated with entering college life, including excitement, curiosity, nervousness, new friendships, first impressions and expectations. The activity provided students with an encouraging environment in which they could give voice to their experiences and strengthen their writing abilities.
